

Great companies compete based on great value propositions and superior business models. Deepen your business model thinkings skills by searching for more illustrations of the business model mechanics studied today.

Find one additional example that illustrates each one of the seven questions:

1. Switching Costs
2. Recurring Revenues
3. Earning vs. Spending
4. Game-Changing Cost Structure
5. Others Who Do the Work
6. Scalability
7. Protection from Competition (based on Business Model)

These business model thinking skills will help you in the ideation phase when you aim to create a great model for your business.