

Brainstorm as many ideas as you can to improve the "fit" of your Value Proposition Canvas and create a pitch of your best idea.

To complete this exercise:

1. Identify the gaps in your Value Proposition Canvas - Go back to the exercises "Fit", "Strategy Canvas" and "Six Ways to Innovate from Customer Jobs" from the previous lessons. What are areas where you could improve your value proposition?
2. Brainstorm alternatives - What can you do to address these gaps? In the next five minutes, brainstorm as many ideas as possible. Make a quick napkin sketch for each idea on a sticky note.
3. Select your best idea and improve the "fit" of your Value Proposition Canvas - Your updated Value Proposition Canvas should demonstrate how you improved the "fit" between Customer Profile and Value Map, and which important customer jobs, pain and/or gain your new idea is addressing.
4. Sketch out an advertising poster of your best idea - Your poster should contain a title/headline and a visual. Add a sentence to explain which important customer job, pain and gain your idea is
